The 1980 Georgian

Georgetown, Massachusetts

A - the beginning.

We started with nothing but then reached out and began to discover new and exciting things. Some things we picked up and carried with us. Others we left for those who followed. We walked forward, sometimes stumbling but always continuing. Some of us gathered too many things, and they slipped from our fingers. Others raced forward, not stopping even to look. We all pushed ahead, not always steadily, to the end.

Dedication

When the time came to select the one person who has contributed the most to the Class of 1980, no one questioned what the outcome would be. Although many faculty members have given their time and effort for various school activities, one individual has constantly supported our class. As our adviser for two years, she was not only always available to help deal with the many developments which are bound to arise when a group of high school students govern one-hundred other kids, but she also provided an inexhaustible source of imaginative ideas and a class spirit unsurpassed by even our most enthusiastic cheerleaders.

Although this individual is very easy-going, yet persevering, many incidents still occurred when nothing seemed to turn out right, and we struggled to keep back the tears. However, her quick thinking, inherent business sense, and supportive encouragement always seemed to save the day. Not often is a class so fortunate to have so gifted a person in their corner.

Therefore, it is with gratitude, forethought, and sincerity that we dedicate the 1980 Georgian to Mrs. Leona Defanski. Thanks, Mrs. 'Ski, for making our high school years so memorable.

Senior Class Advisor

(Mr. Gerald Silverman) That was good, but where's the main course?

Foreign Exchange Students

Georgetown High School has been a great experience for me. Sometimes small problems have appeared, but I have had many happy moments. I would like to thank all the teachers and the administration, and the biggest thanks is for my mother, the person who gave me this opportunity.

Marcello da Silva

I love Georgetown, I love Americans. I won't forget you.

Yasuyuki Arak

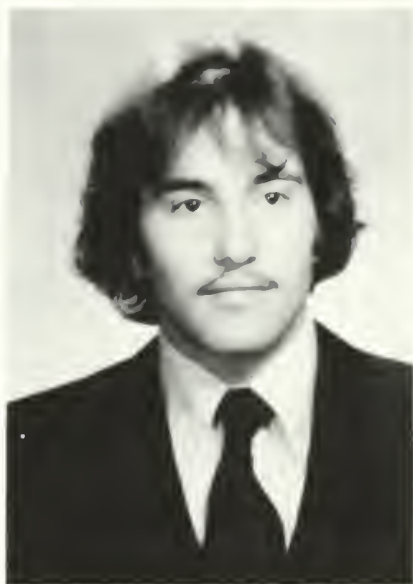

The things you all gave me this year I will never forget. I learned a lot which will benefit me in the future, and, hopefully, I'll see you again.

There are places I remember all my life,
Though some have changed,

With lovers and friends I still can recall.
Some are dead and some are living.
In my life I've loved them all.

The 1979 football season was one of enjoyment and of some frustrations. After winning the first two games, the team then lost four in a row by very close margins to some good football teams.

Rallying together for the final four games, they managed to win all four and completed the season with a respectable 6-4 record culminated with a fine victory in the season final against Manchester. All the players were valiant - Coach Collamore

This year the varsity field hockey team compiled the best record ever recorded in the history of the school. They qualified for the state tournament for the first time. Their success was due to a combination of experience and youth. Senior players Claudia Flyzik, co-captain, and Jacqueline Benjamin, MVP, contributed greatly to the success of the team. Their spirit, determination, desire, and leadership helped to spark the team's efforts. Junior Class members also contributed greatly. This season will be remembered for a long time.

This year's varsity basketball season has been very successful and exciting. The Royals are fighting for the division championship and hold a one-game lead with only two league games remaining. Our win against Ipswich qualified us for the state basketball tournament. This has been one of our earliest qualifications for tournament play and will mark our second tournament appearance in the last three years. The team has worked very hard this season and played great defense with a patient, well-disciplined offense. The contributions of all our players have made this a very rewarding season.

Thoughts To Remember

If ever the world should go dark and gray

Just remember the good old days

The times of smile the every mile

The laughter, the crying

and the feeling of dying

The friends in which you share

the wiping of a tear.

The life before you

The life behind you

Strive for your goal

and make your life whole

Don't be afraid to be what you are to feel the way you feel

to look the way you look

to live the way you live

no one can be you except you

so take a good look

don't pretend

because you alone are your closest friend.

Kim Hunter

One day is worth two tomorrows; what I am to be, I am now beginning.

Only a fool accepts the fact that he is.

"If" is the middle word in life.

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away.—Thoreau

I am I. Do not change me, condemn me, nor put me down. No . . . you need not agree with me, but accept me. I have my faults.

I have my guilts. But that is who I am. Perfect I will never be.

Accept me when I am flying high as I have accepted you when you were flying high. I am I and I like being what I am, me.

In Memoriam . . .

George Norris devoted over ten years of his life to nurturing and encouraging hundreds of Georgetown youths to pursue an interest in music. His tall, dark figure and his deep, resounding voice will be sorely missed by all of his band students who benefited from his varied musical talents, as well as from his genuine concern and unique sense of humor.

Although Mr. Norris was a stern disciplinarian, his pupils were aware that his demanding nature was motivated by a pursuit of excellence. The result of his efforts was the development of a band in which George Norris and the entire community took pride. He acquired even greater respect from his students for his lead position in his own professional musical group, "The Kingsmen", an association which earned George Norris a following up and down the Northeastern coast.

Georgetown was stunned by the tragic death of Mr. Norris. It was a loss of a dedicated teacher, as well as of a person who communicated his love for music, his enthusiasm for life, and his deep concern for young people. Although he is now gone, Mr. Norris' caring and guidance will always be a permanent song in our hearts.

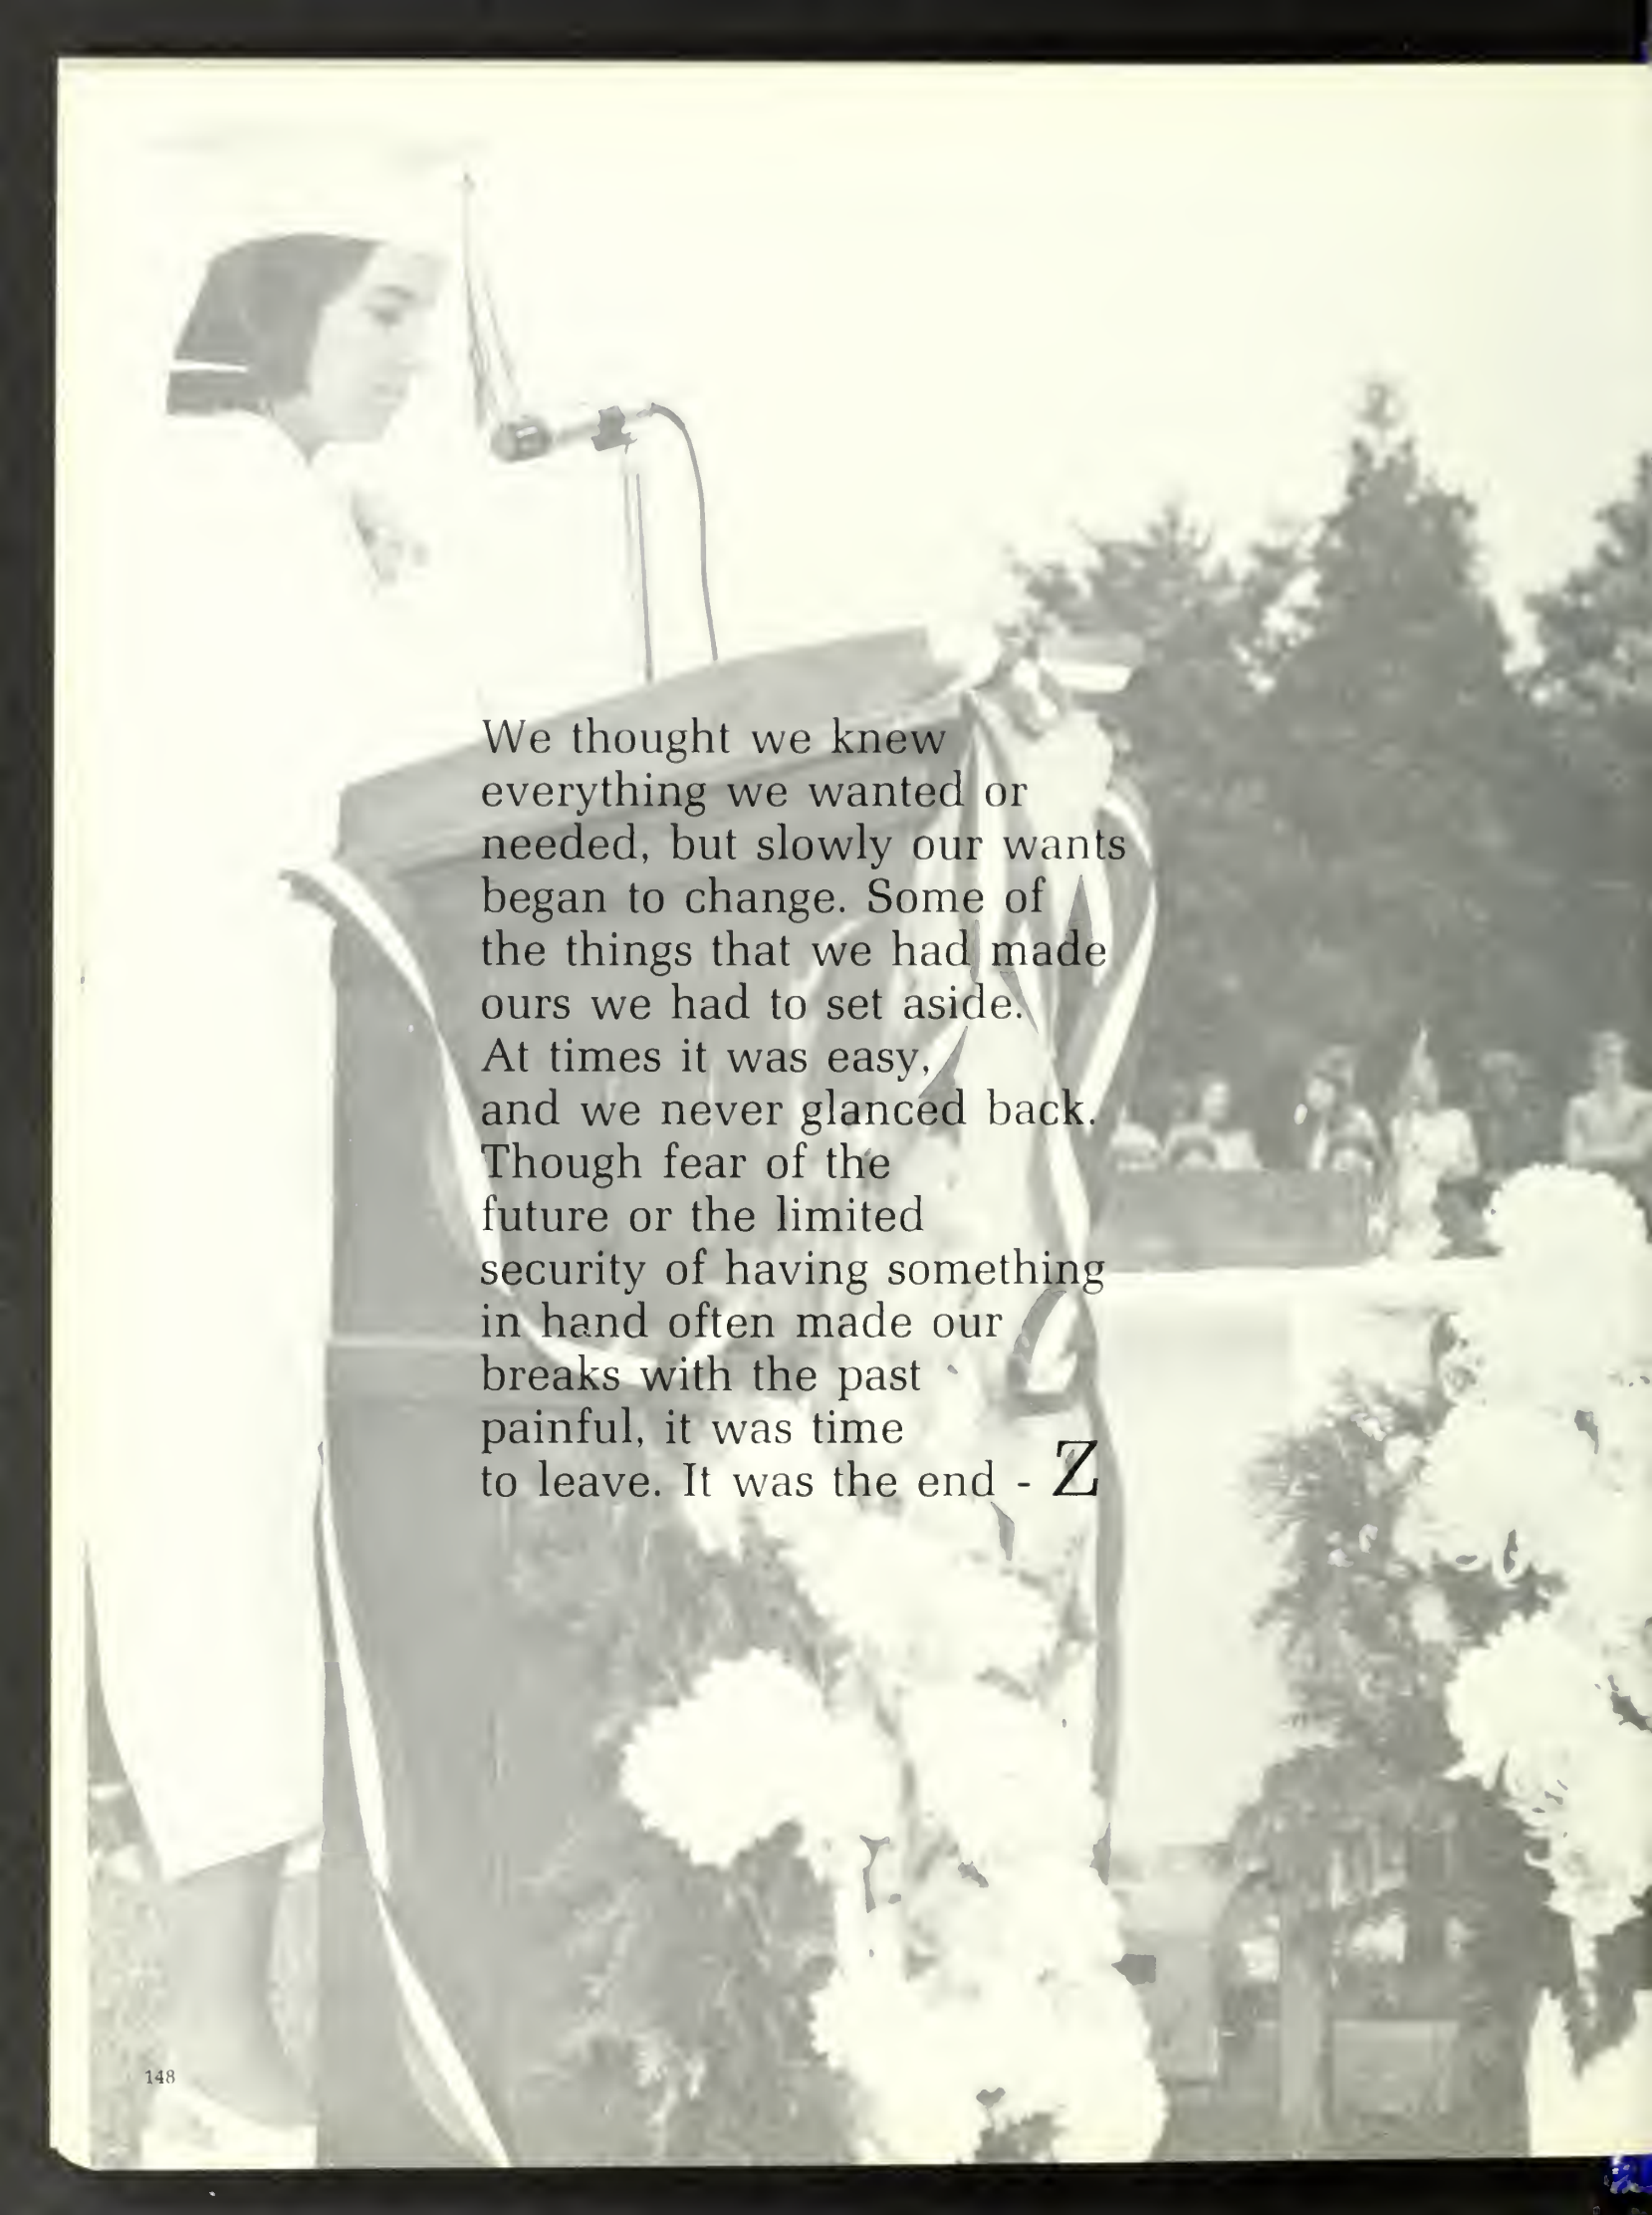

In Appreciation . . .

Many people were instrumental in making our high school years so enjoyable, but the person who deserves to be thanked the most for all her time, effort, and expertise is Mrs. Karen Allbach. On those days when the Staff was buried in a mound of work, when our tempers flared and nothing seemed to fit, Mrs. Allbach was the stabilizing force. Without her help, this yearbook would have been impossible.

Another well-respected individual, Miss Donna Privitera, is appreciated much more than we can ever express. Her endless energy and enthusiasm produced many plays in which students of the Class of '80 participated. Thanks, Miss Priv, for being such a terrific director and such a unique, creative person.

To the following people the Class also extends thanks: Mrs. Anna Noren, for her contagious enthusiasm for the Georgetown athletic teams, and for her many years of dedicated service to the high school; Mr. David Luca and Mr. Ronald Allbach, for coming to our aid when deadlines had arrived, but the photographs hadn't; Mrs. Mary Merrill, for her aid in assembling playbooks for all the plays in which our class has been involved, and for being a very special person; Mrs. Sheila Kelly, for her willingness to host many benefits and banquets quite outside her responsibilities; Mrs. Karen Rowe, for gaining a special place in our memories as one of our favorite substitute teachers, as well as for being an individual eager to share her knowledge with others; and Mr. Gerald Silverman, for accepting the challenge of becoming our Senior Class Adviser, knowing that he would have a difficult act to follow after Mrs. Defanski's two year reign. To all of these people, and to any others whom we may have missed, thanks for your time and guidance. We won't forget you!

We thought we knew everything we wanted or needed, but slowly our wants began to change. Some of the things that we had made ours we had to set aside.
At times it was easy,
and we never glanced back.
Though fear of the future or the limited security of having something in hand often made our breaks with the past painful, it was time to leave. It was the end - Z
